Message from Neela

Dear Grasmere community,

I hope you are all doing well. We have had an enjoyable book week, thank you to Lena, our Reading Lead, for coordinating the week. Don't forget we will have the bookfair next week, where children can spend their book week vouchers.

Thank you to all of you this week for your generosity in fundraising for Ukraine, and donating lots of greatly needed items. You raised an amazing £1132, as one parent's company kindly doubled the donations from the second day. Thank you so much.

Next week we have the Year 3 assembly on Thursday, Year 3 parents, it will be really lovely to see you there!

On Friday we have a special parent's forum at 9am, and Debra Robinson from Hackney Education will be joining us. Please see later in the newsletter for more details.

Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Neela

Parent Forum!

On Friday 12th March, Debra Robinson from Hackney Education will be joining us for a meeting at 9am in the hall. Debra is working across Hackney to capture the voices of a broad range of parents, and she will be coming to talk about her work. For this meeting we would like to extend a special invitation to all our parents from other cultures. Whether you are Black, Asian, Turkish, or define yourselves as a family/person of colour, we would love you to join our meeting. This will be a chance to have your voice heard, and to contribute your ideas to what happens in our school.
